Acknowledgments

I would like to thank my colleagues and Ph.D. students at the Institute for Applied Linguistics at Kent State University for their feedback. I owe a special debt of thanks to Judy Wakabayashi for her insightful editorial comments, and to Claudia Angelelli, whose unfailing support and constant good humor helped make this volume a reality. David L. Cooper's article, "Vasilii Zhukovskii as translator and the protean Russian nation" first appeared in Russian Review 66(2), 2007, pp. 185–203. A slightly revised version of the article is printed in this volume with the kind permission of Blackwell Publishing Ltd.
