Acknowledgements

The Roundtable this volume is mostly a record of took place on September 30-October 1-2, 1994 at the Université de Montréal. Its realization would not have been possible without the help of several institutions and individuals.

For financial help, I am grateful to the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, my Vice-recteur à la recherche, my Vice-doyen à la recherche and my department.

For administrative and technical help, I am grateful to Jean-François Couturier, Mohammed Seddiq Ennajih, Benoît Forest, Noureddine Kahlaoui, Diane Aubut-Moussette, Moussa Ndiaye and Param Randhawa.

For moral support, I am grateful to my rector, Dr. René Simard, for finding the time to open the Roundtable, E. F. Konrad Koerner for the invitation to publish this volume in his series and for constant encouragement, and to Richard Desrochers for help, far beyond the call of duty, in the editing of this volume.

Above all, I am grateful to the contributors to this volume for making a true debate on 'morphophonology' possible.

Rajendra Singh
