A note on the examples

Many of the examples in this study come from the author's field recordings, and will be identified by the year of the recording, the volume number for that year, and the participant's gender (M or F), e.g. [2009-3: F]. All examples were produced by fluent adult Palenquero speakers, unless otherwise noted. Examples derived from responses to experiments, and examples provided by other researchers are identified as such.
