The present work is a revised version of my 1990 doctoral thesis for the University of Düsseldorf.

This work is dedicated to my parents, to whom I am grateful for their constant encouragement and support.

Special thanks go to the children, parents and staff of the day care centres. Without their cooperation this book would never have been written.

For the help provided by his comments, criticism and encouragement, I am also grateful to my advisor Harald Clahsen. I have also profited from discussions with and received comments from Derek Bickerton, Christian Dütschmann, Nina Hyams, Ingrid Kaufmann, Pieter Muysken, Teresa Parodi, Maaïke Verrips, Anne Vainikka, Jürgen Weissenborn and Ken Wexler. Special thanks for extensive comments and encouragement go to Ray Fabri.

I would also like to thank Peter Schuler, who helped me with an earlier draft of this book, and Stefan Freinatis, for his invaluable help in editing the final version of this work and for rescuing me whenever my computer caused trouble.

Finally, I am also indebted to Rudi Resch for his help and support during the preparation of this dissertation.
