Acknowledgments

I am very grateful to the many colleagues and students with whom I have had discussions about functional linguistics over the years. My particular thanks are due to Angela Downing, Louis Goossens, Lachlan Mackenzie, Jan Nuyts, Robert Van Valin and Alison Wray, all of whom read quite lengthy parts of this book in draft and offered extremely valuable suggestions for improvement. For comments on particular points I am grateful also to Dik Bakker, Annerieke Boland, Francis Cornish, Kees Hengeveld, Antonio Moreno Ortiz, Anna Siewierska and Luis París. I should also like to thank Kees Vaes and Lisl Haldenwang of John Benjamins and Michael Noonan, the series editor, for their help in the production of the book. All remaining deficiencies are, of course, entirely my own responsibility.

I would also like to thank the following publishers and authors for permission to reproduce copyright material:
