First and foremost we are grateful to the actors, the participants of the symposium for the enthusiastic role they played.

We would also like to thank Axel Fleisch, Tania Kuteva, Friederike Lüpke, Roxana Ma-Newman, Dirk Otten and Yvonne Treis for agreeing to chair the various sessions. To Danielle Jansen and Friederike Lüpke, moreover, a special thanks for their accomplished management of all the many technical details before, during and after the symposium.

It is our pleasure to thank the director of the Arnold-Janssen-Haus of the Steyler Missionare, Sankt Augustin, Dr. Hermann Kochanek and Ms. Marlies Dahmen for their hospitality and the congenial and relaxed atmosphere.

The symposium was supported with a generous grant from the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft to whom we wish to express our sincere gratitude and the Institut für Afrikanistik, Universität zu Köln and its director, Bernd Heine, who has never failed to support and encourage our endeavors, however unconventional they may have been.
