Acknowledgments

In addition to acknowledging the work of the contributors to this volume, we wish to express our gratitude to the following people and institutions for making it possible for Language Policy: Dominant English, Pluralist Challenges to be published:

Joseph Lo Bianco, Pauline Bryant and Chris Holmes at Language Australia, and Yola de Lusenet and Kees Vaes at Benjamins Publishers for their patience and enthusiasm for the project

Linda Hunter Adams and her students at Brigham Young University's Humanities Publication Center for the work they did in preparing the publication

TESOL International Inc. for giving permission for some of the papers in this volume to be published and for providing a forum for important ideas and issues surrounding the English language to be discussed and disseminated.

We wish also to acknowledge our spouses, Rob and Pam, our children and our friends for their continuing support and encouragement.
