13th International Congress of Phonetic Sciences (ICPhS 95)

It is our pleasure to invite you to ICPhS 95. It will be held in Stockholm, Sweden, August 13–19, 1995. The congress will take place on the campus of Stockholm University, conveniently located near an underground station, a few stops from the city centre.

The format of the congress will follow the pattern of earlier ICPhS meetings with a mixed format of plenary and semi-plenary lectures, topical workshops and symposia, poster sessions and parallel oral sessions. We invite participants to suggest topics for such events.

Please mail, fax or email your interest to ICPhS 95, Congrex, as soon as possible to guarantee that we reach you with further information about the congress (if possible, include a preliminary title and suggestions on special events):
