

A Note on Texts

Quotations from the Hebrew Bible are NJPS and from the New Testament are NRSV unless noted otherwise. Citations of texts from the Dead Sea Scrolls found in the vicinity of Qumran are from The Dead Sea Scrolls Electronic Library (DSSEL), which means they are usually based upon their DJD publication. For the Thanksgiving Hymns, see Stegemann with Schuller, Qumran Cave 1: III (DJD 40). Translations of the wisdom texts from the Qumran corpus are from Kampen, Wisdom Literature, unless noted otherwise. The use of [] in these texts indicates that the letter or word(s) have been reconstructed, often upon the basis of readings from other MSS.
