

Content

Introduction

Alternative Histories in DIY Cultures and Maker Utopias

Cindy Kohtala, Yana Boeva and Peter Troxler 5

I Field Research and Case Studies

Craft and Artisan Initiatives of the Salvadoran Civil War (1980–1992)

Emilio Velis, Kate Samson, Isaac Robles and

Daniel Rodríguez 37

Histories of Technology Culture Manifestos

Their Function in Shaping Technology Cultures and Practices

Ellen K. Foster 57

From Hacking to Making

The Commodification of Spanish DIY Spaces Since the 1990s

David Cuartielles Ruiz and César García Sáez 85

II Entering the Field

Tracing the History of DIY and Maker Culture in Germany's Open Workshops

Regina Sipos and Kerstin Franzl 109

“What You Can Invent over the Weekend” and the Recurring History of Corporate DIY

Samantha Shorey 121

III In Conversation with ...

Makers and Design in South Africa

Technology and Craft Cultures and their Antecedents

Felix Holm and Suné Stassen in Conversation with Cindy Kohtala

and Yana Boeva 135

The Exhibition of People's Technology, 1972

Peter Harper in Conversation with Simon Sadler 153

IV Moments in Alternative (Hi)stories

The Craft of Small Wind Turbine Making

The Windmills of Scoraig and the Alternative
Technology Movement in the UK

Kostas Latoufis and Aristotle Tympas 187

Made in the Russian North

Narratives of Inventiveness from the Geographic Periphery

Svetlana Usenyuk-Kravchuk 193

Czech DIY

A Historically Contingent Landscape

Petr Gibas and Blanka Nyklová 197

Halasuru Traverses

Alternative Local Histories

Anupama Gowda 199

The Trade Educators' Syndicate

Making 10 Retirement Lathes in the Twilight of Australian Manufacturing

Jesse Adams Stein 203

Politics of Patents

Researching, Making and Wearing Alternative Histories of Clothing Inventions

Kat Jungnickel 207

Biographical Notes 211