

Table of Contents

SUBJECT	11	Introduction: Transforming the Post/Colonial Museum Anna Brus and Martin Zillinger
	29	The Uganda Museum's Tribal Representation: Colonial Repositories and Community Reconciliation in Uganda Nelson Adebo Abiti
	47	Challenges of Re-Writing the Iziko Ethnographic Collections Archives: Some Lessons from the Khomani San/Bushmen Engagement Paul Tichmann and Lynn Abrahams
	61	Problematic Museum Heritage in a Postcolonial Context: The Case of the Moto Moto Museum Chisungu Collection Mary Mbewe
	77	Eugen Zintgraff's Diary as a Document of Theft and Destruction of Art Treasures in the Colonial Context Richard Tsogang Fossi
	93	The ›Mystery‹ of the Konkomba's Severed Thumbs: Historical Fact, Colonial Rumour or Legend of the Defeated? Bernard Müller
	107	The Museum of Black Civilisations, between History and Utopia Sabrina Moura
	123	The Post/Colonial Museum: Rethinking the Past, Collecting the Present. A Conversation between Dr. Silvie Memel-Kassi, Nanette Snoep and Martin Zillinger
	137	Beyond the Museum: The Bandjoun Station An Interview with Barthélémy Togo, conducted by Anna Brus and Bernard Müller

	149	Trafficking Vague Cosmological Boundaries: Towards Knowing Experiential Relationality in Museum Epistemics Helen Verran
ADAPTER	167	Evidence and Fiction: An Untimely Alliance with the Photography Archive of Margot Dias and Jorge Dias Catarina Simão
DEBATE	205	Introduction: Discussing Tacit Racism Michi Knecht and Martin Zillinger
	210	Tacit Racism is Institutionalized in Interaction in the US: What about Elsewhere? Anne Warfield Rawls and Waverly Duck
	243	Responses Jean Beaman, Giolo Fele, Martijn de Koning, Christian Meyer, Levent Tezcan, Anne Warfield Rawls and Waverly Duck
	258	Authors

