

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: Hashish, Islam, and Violence in the
French Colonial Mind | 3

1 Competing Strains: The Two Histories of Cannabis in
Early Modern France | 19

2 Jacques-François “Abdallah” Menou, Colonial Mimicry, and the First
Anti-Cannabis Law in French History | 49

3 Antoine Isaac Silvestre De Sacy and the Myth of the Hachichins:
Orientalizing Hashish in France, 1800–40 | 83

4 “A Drug Not to Be Neglected”: Medicalizing Hashish in France,
1810–50 | 106

5 “Empire of Hallucinations and Illusions”: De-medicalizing Hashish in
France, 1840–60 | 150

6 The Hachichins of Algiers: The Criminalization of Hashish in French
Algeria, 1840–80 | 187

Conclusion | 216

Notes | 223

Index | 297