

THE HIGGS YEARS

Collaboration entre l'Institut Donald J. Savoie et McGill-Queen's University Press, la collection « Louis J. Robichaud » regroupe des publications en français et en anglais, évaluées par des pairs et qui portent sur les politiques publiques canadiennes, le régionalisme et des sujets connexes. La collection est ouverte aux chercheuses et chercheurs de toutes les universités du Canada atlantique et offre une plus grande visibilité aux travaux universitaires qui s'intéressent aux enjeux fondamentaux de politique et comprennent des analyses rigoureuses, pertinentes et non partisans à forte valeur sociale et contribuant à des débats publics éclairés. La collection rend hommage à l'ancien premier ministre néo-brunswickois Louis J. Robichaud, reconnu comme l'un des grands leaders politiques du XXe siècle au Canada et l'un des fondateurs de l'Université de Moncton.

A collaboration between the Donald J. Savoie Institute and McGill-Queen's University Press, the Louis J. Robichaud Series publishes peer-reviewed scholarship on Canadian public policy, regionalism, and related subjects in both English and French. The series welcomes books by researchers at all Atlantic Canadian universities and offers widespread visibility to Atlantic university research that focuses on the stakes of public policy, informed by rigorous, relevant, and non-partisan analysis that is socially engaged and aims to contribute to transparent and informed public debate. The series honours Louis J. Robichaud, a New Brunswick premier widely recognized as a leading light of twentieth-century Canadian politics and a founder of the University of Moncton.

McGill-Queen's University Press in Montreal is on land which long served as a site of meeting and exchange amongst Indigenous Peoples, including the Haudenosaunee and Anishinabeg nations. In Kingston it is situated on the territory of the Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabek. We acknowledge and thank the diverse Indigenous Peoples whose footsteps have marked these territories on which peoples of the world now gather.
