

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	I
Julio F. Carrión
1 The Rise and Decline of Fujimori's Neopopulist Leadership	13
Kurt Weyland
2 An Authoritarian Presidency: How and Why Did Presidential Power Run Amok in Fujimori's Peru?	39
Philip Mauceri
3 Fujimori and the Mayors of Lima, 1990–2001: The Impact and Legacy of Neopopulist Rule	61
Robert R. Barr and Henry Dietz
4 Do Parties Matter? Lessons from the Fujimori Experience	81
Kenneth M. Roberts
5 The Immoral Economy of Fujimorismo	102
Catherine M. Conaghan
6 Public Opinion, Market Reforms, and Democracy in Fujimori's Peru	126
Julio F. Carrión
7 All the President's Women: Fujimori and Gender Equity in Peruvian Politics	150
Gregory D. Schmidt
8 Redirection of Peruvian Economic Strategy in the 1990s: Gains, Losses, and Clues for the Future	178
John Sheahan
9 Against the Odds: The Paradoxes of Peru's Economic Recovery in the 1990s	201
Carol Wise
10 The Often Surprising Outcomes of Asymmetry in International Affairs: United States–Peru Relations in the 1990s	227
David Scott Palmer
11 Electoral Authoritarian Versus Partially Democratic Regimes: The Case of the Fujimori Government and the 2000 Elections	242
Cynthia McClintock

12	Endogenous Regime Breakdown: The Vladivideo and the Fall of Peru's Fujimori	268
	Maxwell A. Cameron
	Conclusion: The Rise and Fall of Electoral Authoritarianism in Peru	294
	Julio F. Carrión
	Bibliography	319
	Appendix. Peru, 1990–2000: A Basic Chronology	341
	List of Contributors	345
	Index	349