

Contents

Preface	vii
Nancy Tuana
Acknowledgments	xi
1 Locations and Legacies: Reading Mary Astell and Re-Reading the Canon	1
Penny A. Weiss
2 Mary Astell and the Virtues	16
Jacqueline Broad
3 Mary Astell's Account of Feminine Self-Esteem	35
Kathleen A. Ahearn
4 Mary Astell and the Development of Vice: Pride, Courtship, and the Woman's Human Nature Question	57
Alice Sowaal
5 Custom, Freedom, and Equality: Mary Astell on Marriage and Women's Education	74
Karen Detlefsen
6 Further Reflections upon Marriage: Mary Astell and Sarah Chapone	93
Susan Paterson Glover
7 Mary Astell: Some Reflections upon Trauma	111
Elisabeth Hedrick Moser

8	“From the Throne to Every Private Family”: Mary Astell as Analyst of Power Penny A. Weiss	128
9	Mary Astell’s Feminism: A Rhetorical Perspective Christine Mason Sutherland	153
10	Mary Astell on the Existence and Nature of God Marcy P. Lascano	168
11	The Emerging Picture of Mary Astell’s Views Alice Sowaal	188
	References	207
	List of Contributors	219
	Index	221