ILLUSTRATIONS

Мар 1	Roman expansion until 192 CE. © Dario Ingiusto.	xiii
Map 2.	Main cities of Roman Palestine. © Dario Ingiusto.	xiv
1.1	Neo-Assyrian reliefs from Nineveh showing the impalement of prisoners from Lakish.	44
1.2	Reliefs from the Apadana palace in Persepolis, showing
	vassals bringing gifts to the Persian king.	59
1.3	Reliefs from the Apadana palace in Persepolis, showing
	subject peoples carrying the Persian king's throne.	60
2.1	Reverse of a denarius representing the Genius populi
	Romani (74 BCE).	99
2.2	Relief from the Sebasteion in Aphrodisias: Roma standing.	106
2.3	Denarius representing Hadrian on the obverse, and
	Roma with the palladium on the reverse (117–138 CE).	110
2.4	Denarius representing Victoria on the obverse, and Octavian
	as Neptune, with foot on globe, on the reverse (31–29 BCE).	129
2.5	Relief from the Sebasteion in Aphrodisias: Claudius, ruler
	over land and sea.	131
2.6	Reliefs on the Arch of Titus in Rome, showing the sacred	4 = 0
	vessels from the Jerusalem Temple.	158
3.1	Denarius featuring the Genius of the Roman people on the obverse, and Mars on the reverse (68 CE).	182
0.0	Battle scene on the Ludovisi Battle Sarcophagus (ca. 255 CE)	102
3.2	(Museum Palazzo Altemps, Rome).	184
0.0	Sestertius of the Iudaea Capta type, featuring a bust of	104
3.3	Vespasian on the obverse, and on the reverse Vespasian
	with Judea seated, mourning (71 CE).	187
3.4	Relief from the Sebasteion in Aphrodisias: Claudius and	·
0 1	Britannia.	188
3.5	Relief from the Sebasteion in Aphrodisias: Nero and
	Armenia.	189
3.6	Sestertius of the Iudaea Capta type, featuring Vespasian on the obverse, and a Judean captive standing alongside Judea, seated and mourning, on the reverse (71 CE).	208

[xii] ILLUSTRATIONS

5.1	Bronze coin of the colonia Neapolis, featuring Philip I on the obverse, and the she-wolf suckling the twins on the reverse (247–249 CE).	353
5.2	Denarius featuring Hadrian on the obverse, and Trajan
	and Hadrian clasping hands, with the legend ADOPTIO on the reverse (117 CE, minted in Syria, probably in Antioch).	409