

C O N T E N T S

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Preface: Crossing 96th Street	xv
INTRODUCTION
The Capeman and the Vampires	3
CHAPTER ONE
Remaking New York	27
CHAPTER TWO
Discovering Gangs: The Role of Race in the 1940s	51
CHAPTER THREE
Defending Place: Ethnicity and Territory	78
CHAPTER FOUR
Becoming Men: The Use of the Streets in Defining Masculinity	106
CHAPTER FIVE
Making a Gang Culture: Form, Style, and Ritual in the Gang World	137
CHAPTER SIX
Leaving the Gang: Pathways into Adulthood	164
CHAPTER SEVEN
Intervening in Gangs: The Problems and Possibilities of Social Work	188

CHAPTER EIGHT

Drugs, Politics, and Gangs, 1960–1975 217

CONCLUSION

Comparing Gangs: Contemporary Gangs in Historical Perspective 246

Notes 263

Index 319