

Contents

---

List of Figures	ix
List of Tables	xi
Preface	xv
INTRODUCTION
Institutional Change, Nineteenth-Century Growth, and the Early Modern Legacy	1
CHAPTER ONE
The End of the Republic: Adam Smith's "Stationary State" and the Enlightened Revolution	11
The "Stationary State" and Historiographical Debate	11
Technology and Institutions	25
The Institutional Deficiency of the Republic	32
United and Indivisible: Centralization and Political Reform	40
CHAPTER TWO
A Complex Legacy Tossed: The Dutch Economy during War and Revolution, 1780–1813	52
The Legacy: Specialization and Structural Change	52
Economic Integration and Regional Price Gaps	60
War and Revolution: Between Stability and Decline	65
Institutional Rigidities and the Fall of the VOC	73
The Financial Sector: Debt Accumulation and Capital Exports	79
Conclusion	83
CHAPTER THREE
Unification and Secession: The Autocratic Experiment of Willem I, 1813–1840	85
The New Institutional Framework: The Constitutions of 1814–15	85
Precarious Consensus: Trade Policy and Public Finance	90
Costly Priorities: Fiscal Policy and Public Debt	96
The Activist Experiment: Domestic Economic Policy, 1813–30	106
East Indian Frustration: Colonial Policy, 1813–30	111
Secession and Renewal of the Colonial Nexus, 1830–40	115

CHAPTER FOUR

Troubled Recovery: Secession, Policy Adjustment, and the Colonial Nexus, 1813–1840	121
Postwar Instability into Sustained Growth	121
The Primary Sector: Agriculture and Fisheries	123
Case Study: The Dissolution of the Commons in the Eastern Provinces	129
Case Study: Stagnation in the Herring Fishery	132
Industrial Development	135
Case Study: The Blocked Modernization of the Food Industry	144
The Services Sector: Differentiated Dynamics	150
Case Study: The Capital Market as a Bottleneck?	157
Economic Development and the Autocratic Experiment	163

CHAPTER FIVE

The Liberal Offensive, 1840–1870	168
Upbeat: The Financial Crisis of 1839–40	168
The Reorganization of Government Finance	171
Colonial Policy and the Batig Slot	178
The Liberalization of Trade Policy	183

CHAPTER SIX

Market Integration and Restructuring, 1840–1870	188
The Midcentury Productivity Slowdown	188
Agriculture: From Potato Famine to Export Boom	196
Services as Leading Sector	203
Case Study: The Integration of the Coal Market	206
Case Study: Currency Reform and the Integration of the Capital Market	210
Case Study: Integration and Communications	215
Slowdown into Acceleration: Industrial Performance	219
Case Study: The Rise of the Factory	227
The Labor Market: From Urban Crisis to Structural Change	236
Conclusion	240

CHAPTER SEVEN

Emancipation, Pluralism, and Compromise: Toward the Politics of Accommodation, 1870–1913	242
The “Social Question,” Pillarization, and Civilization	242
Collective Action and the Gestation of a New Corporatism	249
The Gold Standard and Public Finance	254

CHAPTER EIGHT

Modern Economic Growth and Structural Change, 1870–1913 263

The Transition to Another Pattern of Economic Growth 263

Agriculture: New Institutions and Structural Change 281

Case Study: The Emergence of the Cooperative Banks 291

Industry: Two Phases of Growth 295

Services Sector Growth 305

Case Study: Modern Imperialism and the Services Sector 310

Case Study: The Changing Economy of the Household 319

Conclusion 328

EPILOGUE

Economic Development between Corporatism and Consociational
Democracy 331

Notes 335

Bibliography 357

Index 377

