

Contents

Preface	viii
Ian Brown, Thomas Owen Clancy, Susan Manning and Murray Pittock
1 Changing Cultures: The History of Scotland since 1918 Richard Finlay	1
2 Notes on a Small Country: Scotland's Geography since 1918 Hayden Lorimer	11
3 Resistance to Monolinguality: The Languages of Scotland since 1918 Wilson McLeod and Jeremy Smith	21
4 The International Reception and Literary Impact of Scottish Literature of the Period since 1918 Paul Barnaby and Tom Hubbard	31
5 The Criticism of Scottish Literature: Tradition, Decline and Renovation Cairns Craig	42
6 Literature and the Screen Media since 1908 Richard Butt	53
7 Material Culture in Modern Scotland Murray Pittock	64
8 Sir James Frazer and Marian McNeill Robert Fraser	69
9 Hugh MacDiarmid Alan Riach	75
10 Edwin and Willa Muir: Scottish, European and Gender Journeys, 1918–69 Margery Palmer McCulloch	84
11 'To Get Leave to Live': Negotiating Regional Identity in the Literature of North-East Scotland Alison Lumsden	95
12 Disorientation of Place, Time and 'Scottishness': Conan Doyle, Linklater, Gunn, Mackay Brown and Elphinstone Ian Campbell	106

13	Past and Present: Modern Scottish Historical Fiction Colin Milton	114
14	Tradition and Modernity: Gaelic Bards in the Twentieth Century Thomas A. McKean	130
15	Theatres, Writers and Society: Structures and Infrastructures of Theatre Provision in Twentieth-Century Scotland David Hutchison	142
16	Cultural Catalysts: Sorley MacLean and George Campbell Hay Christopher Whyte	151
17	Living with the Double Tongue: Modern Poetry in Scots Roderick Watson	163
18	Monsters and Goddesses: Culture Re-energised in the Poetry of Ruairaidh MacThòmais and Aonghas MacNeacail Michel Byrne	176
19	Old Country, New Dreams: Scottish Poetry since the 1970s Eleanor Bell	185
20	The Lost Boys and Girls of Scottish Children's Fiction Maureen A. Farrell	198
21	The Human and Textual Condition: Muriel Spark's Narratives Margaret Elphinstone	207
22	From Carswell to Kay: Aspects of Gender, the Novel and the Drama Susanne Hagemann	214
23	The Autobiography in Scottish Gaelic Meg Bateman	225
24	Varieties of Voice and Changing Contexts: Robin Jenkins and Janice Galloway Bernard Sellin	231
25	Breaking Boundaries: From Modern to Contemporary in Scottish Fiction Douglas Gifford	237
26	Re-imagining the City: End of the Century Cultural Signs in the Novels of McIlvanney, Banks, Gray, Welsh, Kelman, Owens and Rankin Marie Odile Pittin-Hédon	253
27	The Border Crossers and Reconfiguration of the Possible: Poet-Playwright-Novelists from the Mid-Twentieth Century on Ian Brown and Colin Nicholson	262

28	In the Shadow of the Bard: The Gaelic Short Story, Novel and Drama since the early Twentieth Century Michelle Macleod and Moray Watson	273
29	Staging the Nation: Multiplicity and Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Scottish Theatre Ian Brown	283
30	Varieties of Gender Politics, Sexuality and Thematic Innovation in Late Twentieth-Century Drama Ksenija Horvat	295
31	The Diaspora and its Writers Iain Wright	304
32	New Diversity, Hybridity and Scottishness Alastair Niven	320
	Notes on Contributors – Volume Three	332
	Index	337