
Contents

Tables	ix
Figures and Maps	xi
Place Names	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction	xxi
Illustrations following	xxiv

PART ONE SETTING THE SCENE

- 1 A Brief History of Tuberculosis in Canada 3
- 2 The Inuit People and the Arctic 16
- 3 Other Players: The Hudson's Bay Company and the Missionaries 29
- 4 Other Players: The Government and the RCMP 40

PART TWO THE EVENTS

- 5 Emergence of the Problem 55
- 6 The Assault 66
- 7 The Eastern Arctic Patrol 86
- 8 Life in the San. 104

viii Contents

- 9 After the Hospital: Going Home, or a Southern Grave 117
- 10 The 1960s: New Measures in the Northwest Territories 133
- 11 Distinct but Similar: The Epidemic in Quebec and Newfoundland 152

PART THREE CONCLUSIONS

- 12 The Balance Sheet: One Person's Point of View 175

APPENDICES

- 1 Arctic Administration and Principal Events, 1870–1970 189
- 2 Interviews 193
- 3 Hospitals to which Inuit Were Sent, 1940s to 1960s 195
- 4 NANR "Standard Eskimo Discharge Kit" 198

Notes 201

A Note on Sources 221

Credits 223

Index 225