

My Life at the Bar and Beyond

FOOTPRINTS SERIES

EDITED BY SUZANNE MORTON

This series introduces to a wide audience extraordinary Canadians, past and present, who have led fascinating and important lives at home and throughout the world. It is premised on the belief that the stories of individual women and men who fell into interesting times or were participants in interesting events help nuance larger historical narratives, at times reinforcing those narratives, at others contradicting them.

The series seeks original manuscripts but may consider the English language translation of works that have already appeared in another language.

The editor of the series welcomes inquiries from authors. If you are in the process of completing a manuscript that you think might fit into the Series, please contact her, care of McGill-Queen's University Press, 3430 McTavish Street, Montreal, QC H3A 1X9.
