

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
------------------------	-----

Introduction.....	1
-------------------	---

Part I: Understanding Surveillance

I	Canadian Internet “Boomerang” Traffic and Mass NSA Surveillance: Responding to Privacy and Network Sovereignty Challenges Andrew Clement and Jonathan A. Obar	13
II	Forgotten Surveillance: Covert Human Intelligence Sources in Canada in a Post-9/11 World Steve Hewitt	45

Part II: Legal Issues

III	Foreign Intelligence in an Inter-Networked World: Time for a Re-Evaluation Tamir Israel	71
IV	Lawful Illegality: What Snowden Has Taught Us about the Legal Infrastructure of the Surveillance State Lisa M. Austin	103
V	Law, Logarithms, and Liberties: Legal Issues Arising from CSE’s Metadata Collection Initiatives Craig Forcese	127

Part III: Reforms and Accountability

VI	Permanent Accountability Gaps and Partial Remedies Kent Roach	163
VII	The Failure of Official Accountability and the Rise of Guerrilla Accountability Reg Whitaker	205

VIII	Why Watching the Watchers Isn't Enough: Canadian Surveillance Law in the Post-Snowden Era Michael Geist	225
IX	Stuck on the Agenda: Drawing Lessons from the Stagnation of "Lawful Access" Legislation in Canada Christopher Parsons	257
	About the Contributors	285