

Contents

Introduction: The Argument and Its Audience	3
PART I: RATIONALE
1 The Dilemma of Punishment	9
2 The Meaning of Punishment	17
Introduction, 17. A Preliminary Definition, 19. Punishment, Treatment, and Other Sanctions, 23. A Revised Definition, 31.
3 Justifications for Criminal Punishment	35
Introduction, 35. Retribution, 37. Utilitarian Prevention: Deterrence, 39. Special Deterrence or Intimidation, 45. Behavioral Prevention: Incapacitation, 48. Behavioral Prevention: Rehabilitation, 53. Summary: The Limits of Prevention, 58.
4 Toward an Integrated Theory of Criminal Punishment	62
5 Culpability and Conduct	71
Introduction, 71. Conduct as a Prerequisite, 73. The Principle of Legality, 79. The Allocation of Competences, 87. Vagueness, Strict Construction, and Preventive Detention, 91.
6 Culpability and Excuses	103
Introduction, 103. The General Rationale of Excuses, 108. Necessity, 113. Apparent Necessity: The Role of "Mistake," 119. Strict Liability: Decline of "Mistake," 121. A Caveat on the Insanity Defense, 131.

- 7 Proof and Proportionality 136
 The Standard of Proof, 136. Proportionality and Punishment, 139.

PART II: PROCESS

- 8 Two Models of the Criminal Process 149
 Introduction, 149. Values Underlying the Models, 154.
- 9 The Models in Operation: From Arrest to Charge 174
 Introduction, 174. Arrests for Investigation, 175. Detention and Interrogation After a "Lawful" Arrest, 186. Electronic Surveillance, 194. Illegally Secured Evidence, 198. Access to Counsel, 201.
- 10 The Models in Operation: From Charge to Guilt Determination 205
 The Decision to Charge, 205. Pre-Trial Detention, 210. The Plea of Guilty, 221.
- 11 The Models in Operation: Review of Errors 227
 Appeal, 228. Collateral Attack, 233. Access to Counsel: A Postscript, 236.
- 12 The Trend and Its Impact: A Tentative Appraisal 239

PART III: LIMITS

- 13 An Approach to the Problem of Limits 249
 Introduction, 249. The Question of Alternatives, 251. Compensation and Regulation: The Case of Drunk Driving, 251. Treatment: The Case of Civil Commitment, 256. The Alternative of Doing Nothing, 258. Limits as a Problem of Resource Allocation, 259.
- 14 The Search for Limits: Law and Morals 261
 Immorality: A Necessary Condition, 261. Immorality: An Insufficient Condition, 264. "Harm to Others," 266. Goals of Punishment, 267.
- 15 The Search for Limits: Profit and Loss 270
 Remoteness and Triviality, 270. Crime Tariffs, 277. Tensions Between Police and Public, 282. Sporadic Enforcement, 286. Abuse of Discretion, 290. Assembly-Line Justice, 292. Covert Functions, 293.

Contents	xi
16 The Criteria Applied: Morals Offenses	296
The Criminal Sanction at Its Best, 296. Sex Offenses, 301. Bigamy and Incest: Two Imaginary Crimes, 312. The Sin of Obscenity, 316. Prostitution: Sin or Nuisance, 328.
17 The Criteria Applied: Miscellaneous Offenses	332
The Control of Narcotics and Other Drugs, 332. Abortion: The Crime Tariff in Action, 342. Drunkenness: The Right to Be "Sick," 345. Gambling: The Case for Experimenta- tion, 347. The Businessman as Criminal, 354.
Conclusion: Means and Ends	364
Bibliographical Note	369
Index	379

THE LIMITS OF THE CRIMINAL SANCTION

