

✱ Contents

About the Series	ix
A Note on Terminology	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	1
PART ONE
1. A Woman with No Names and Many Names: Lynching, Gender, Violence, and Subjectivity	35
2. Webs of Violence: The Camp Grant Indian Massacre, Nation, and Genocidal Alliances	81
3. Spaces of Death: Border (Anthropological) Subjects and the Problem of Racialized and Gendered Violence in Jovita González's Archive	133
PART TWO
Introduction to Part Two	173
4. Transnational Histories of Violence during the Yaqui Indian Wars in the Arizona–Sonora Borderlands: The Historiography	177
5. Stripping the Body of Flesh and Memory: Toward a Theory of Yaqui Subjectivity	235
Postscript On Impunidad : National Renewals of Violence in Greater Mexico and the Americas	289
Notes	297
Bibliography	343
Index	361

