

VOICES OF MY COMRADES

AMERICA'S RESERVE OFFICERS
REMEMBER
WORLD WAR II

VOICES OF MY COMRADES

EDITED BY CAROL ADELE KELLY

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY PRESS

New York 2007

Copyright © 2007 Fordham University Press

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means—electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording, or any other—except for brief quotations in printed reviews, without the prior permission of the publisher.

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Voices of my comrades : America's Reserve officers remember World War II / edited by Carol Adele Kelly.—1st.

p. cm.—(World War II—the global, human, and ethical dimension ; 13)

Stories originally submitted by members of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States and published in a monthly feature of The officer, Dec. 1991–Sept. 1995.

Includes bibliographical references and index.

ISBN 978-0-8232-2823-2 (cloth : alk. paper)

1. World War, 1939–1945—Personal narratives, American. I. Kelly, Carol Adele. II. Reserve Officers Association of the United States. III. Officer.

D769.V64 2007

940.54'8173—dc22

2007037890

09 08 07 5 4 3 2 1

First edition

To the men, women, and families of World War II who preserved the world from tyranny, and especially to our nation's citizen-soldiers who from our country's founding have taken up arms in defense of liberty.

*They had come not to conquer or terrorize but to liberate. . . . They prevailed and thereby saved us all. . . .
They brought more freedom to more people around the world than any other generation in history.*

—Stephen E. Ambrose

