

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1
Sonja M. Kim

PART I RECOLLECTING SOCIOTECHNICAL IMAGINARIES

- 1 Aligning Patterns in the Material World:
Sciences in Chosŏn Korea 19
Don Baker
- 2 Medicine as a Virtuous Art in Chosŏn
and Colonial Korea 44
Sonja M. Kim
- 3 Cloning National Pride: Science, Technology, and the Korean
Dream of Joining the “Advanced World” 67
Inkyu Kang

PART II RESTORING MINDS AND BODIES

- 4 The Suicidal Person: The Medicalization and Gendering of Suicide in Colonial Korea 93
Theodore Jun Yoo
- 5 In Search of an Anticommunist Nation:
The World Health Organization and Public Health Planning in Postwar Korea 115
Jane S. H. Kim
- 6 From Ruin to Revival: Mobilizing the Body, Child Welfare, and the Hybrid Origins of Rehabilitative Medicine
in South Korea, 1954–1961 132
John P. DiMoia

- 7 Suffering Longevity: Life, Time, Money, and the Stem Cell
Business in the Centenarian Era 155
Jieun Lee

PART III PROSTHETIC ARTS

- 8 Photography, Technology, and Realism in 1950s Korea 177
Hye-ri Oh
- 9 Long-Distance Recall: Nam June Paik
and the Prosthetics of Memory 204
Steve Choe
- 10 Affect in the End of Days: South Korean Science Fiction
Cinema, Doomsday Book, and Affective Estrangement 225
Haerin Shin

Bibliography 245

Contributors 263

Index 267