

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Preface Jo Boyden	ix
Introduction Jason Hart	1
PART I: ADOLESCENCE IN CONTEXT
1 Reconstructing Adolescence after Displacement: Experience from Eastern Africa Hirut Tefferi	23
2 Doing Nothing and Being Good: Social Relationships and Networks of Support among Adolescent Congolese Refugees in Dar es Salaam Gillian Mann	38
3 Growing Up in Exile: Psychosocial Challenges Facing Refugee Youth in the United States Kenneth E. Miller, Hallie Kushner, Jill McCall, Zoë Martell and Madhur Kulkarni	58
PART II: ADOLESCENTS ENGAGING IN POLITICAL VIOLENCE
4 Political Transition and Youth Violence in Post-apartheid South Africa: In Search of Understanding Andrew Dawes	89

5	Abject Heroes: Marginalised Youth, Modernity and Violent Pathways of the Liberian Civil War Mats Utas	111
6	UNHCR and the Military Recruitment of Adolescents Hanne Beirens	139
PART III: GENDERED ADOLESCENCE IN EXILE
7	The Long Road Home: Adolescent Afghan Refugees in Iran Contemplate 'Return' Homa Hoodfar	165
8	Dislocated Masculinity: Adolescence and the Palestinian Nation-in-exile Jason Hart	188
PART IV: RESPONDING TO ADOLESCENTS
9	The Challenges of Programming with Youth in Afghanistan Joanna de Berry	209
10	Adolescence and Armed Conflict in Colombia: 'Resilience' as a Construction Emerging within Psychosocial Work Diana Isabel Alvis Palma	230
PART V: RESEARCHING WITH ADOLESCENTS
11	Participatory Research with War-affected Adolescents and Youth: Lessons Learnt from Fieldwork with Youth Gangs in Ayacucho, Peru Cordula Strocka	255
12	The Place to Be? Making Media with Young Refugees Liesbeth de Block	277
	Notes on Contributors	298
	Index	303