

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Abbreviations	xiii
Preface	xiv
Introduction: Starting from Responsibility and Human Rights	1
Thesis and Chapter Outline	18
1. The Right to Opacity in Theory	32
Toward an Alternative Ethical Vocabulary	32
Alterity and Encounter Read in Context	36
Contacts, Relays and Opacities	40
The Right to Opacity and Human Rights	52
2. The Right to Opacity in Practice	66
The Critical-Reformist Tension	66
Three Approaches to Human Rights	77
The Three Approaches at Work and the Promises of Standing Rock	85
3. Solidarity beyond Participation	106
Institutions and Imaginaries	106
Roots: Identity and Belonging	115
Relations: Solidarity, Anarchy and Generosity	125
Root Identity and Relation Identity	129
Expansive Belonging	133

4. The Feasibility of Ethical Pursuits	149
Feasibility	149
The Other of Thought	153
La Facultad	157
Deslenguada	163
Entanglements	166
Making Kin	169
5. The Limits of Ethics and the Question of Political Commitment	185
Summary of Study	185
The Limits of Ethics	186
The Question of Political Commitment	189
W. E. B. Du Bois's Critique of Elite Human Rights Discourse	192
Bibliography	219
Index	237