

Illustrations

FIGURES

1.1	Framework for understanding the mechanics of digital transformations in courts	5
2.1	Statistics of online applications (2017–2022)	24
2.2	Video conference hearings on national legislative election dispute 2019	25
2.3	Video conference hearings (2021–2023)	25
2.4	YouTube viewers on presidential election dispute settlement 2019	27
2.5	The minutes of court hearings	28
2.6	Digital mobile application installation	29
2.7	Response time of the author as of April 2023	30
3.1	Workflow at Record Room Digitization Centre	40
3.2	Virtual courtroom in Angul and Nayagarh	43
3.3	Virtual centres	44
5.1	Fundamental elements of access to justice	70
5.2	Percentile rank of the Philippines in selected sub-factors of the World Justice Project Rule of Law Index (2015–2022)	71
5.3	National case flow of first and second level courts 2010–2021	72
6.1	Bangalore Principles of Judicial Conduct	93
6.2	Are new technologies making courts more accessible to everyone?	98
6.3	How are technologies affecting the speed of trials?	99
6.4	How are technologies affecting the ability to participate from home or from their communities?	99
7.1	Chart illustrating the model of task allocation in hybrid human-AI adjudication	116
8.1	A page of the first-generation system displays results (2,826 matches) when the user assigns three factors	124
8.2	A page of the first-generation system displays the number of matches where the user assigns four factors	125
8.3	A page of the first-generation system displays the distribution of sentences in DUI cases	125

8.4	The distribution of specific cases in which offenders were sentenced to fewer than 59 days of imprisonment for DUI cases (per Figure 8.3 search)	126
8.5	The homepage of the second-generation system	127
8.6	Page displayed after selecting one of the eight categories of offences: sexual assault case	128
8.7	Suggestions for DUI cases based on assigned factors (no matching cases)	129
8.8	Page displaying an instance of fraud	130
8.9	Homepage of the third-generation fact-based sentencing information platform	131
8.10	Options display: factors stipulated in Criminal Code	131
8.11	Search results show the average, range and percentage of sentencing decisions in the matching judgments	132
8.12	Distribution of sentencing decisions in the same matching judgments	132
8.13	Homepage of the third-generation evaluation-based sentencing information system	133
8.14	The second layer of the evaluation-based system shows the distribution of sentencing decisions handed down in matching judgments	133
8.15	Distribution of sentencing decisions handed down in matching judgments	134
13.1	High-level flow pilot model depicts the flow of information from the point of input to the suitable output to be used within judgment drafting	211

TABLES

2.1	Constitutional Court decisions (as of April 2023)	21
6.1	Technologies in the legal process and associated needs	96