

Contents

Preface ix

Introduction 1

- 1 Justice, Luck, and Equality 9
 - I. Rawlsian vs. Luck Egalitarian Justice 10
 - II. Inequality vs. Equality 14
 - III. Reasonable Avoidability vs. Responsibility 19

Part I Health Care 27

- 2 Responsibility-*Ins*ensitive Health Care 29
 - I. The Fair Opportunity Account 30
 - II. Opportunities and Life Plans 34
 - III. The Democratic Equality Account 37
- 3 Ultra-Responsibility-Sensitive Health Care:
“All-Luck Egalitarianism” 45
 - I. A Test Case: Justifying Medical Treatment for Smoking-Related Diseases 46
 - II. Some Preliminary Problems with All-Luck Egalitarianism 48
 - III. What’s Wrong with Neutralizing Luck as Such? 51
 - IV. All-Luck Egalitarianism, Moral Luck, and Desert 54
- 4 Tough Luck? Why Luck Egalitarians Need
Not Abandon Reckless Patients 58
 - I. Luck Egalitarian Attempts to Deflect the Abandonment Objection 59
 - II. Value Pluralism 64
 - III. Three Objections to Luck Egalitarian Value Pluralism 66
 - IV. A Potential Solution? 68
- 5 Responsibility-Sensitive Universal Health Care 74
 - I. Meeting Basic Needs 75
 - II. Health Care as a Public Good 78
 - III. Some Counter-Objections and Clarifications 80
 - IV. In-Kind Health Care 83

Part II Health 87

- 6 Why Justice in Health? 89
 - I. Is Health Care (Still) Special? 89
 - II. Why a Separate Theory of Justice in Health? 92
- 7 Luck Egalitarian Justice in Health 98
 - I. Rawlsian vs. Luck Egalitarian Justice in Health 99
 - II. Two Problems with Fair Equality of Opportunity for Health 101
 - III. Health Inequalities between the Sexes Revisited 105
- 8 Equality or Priority in Health? 111
 - I. The Value of Equality in Health 112
 - II. Some Potential Objections and Qualifications 115
 - III. Luck Prioritarian Justice in Health 118
- 9 Distributing Human Enhancements 121
 - I. What Is Human Enhancement? 122
 - II. The Treatment vs. Enhancement Distinction 124
 - III. “Fair” Skin and Other Potential Objections 130
 - IV. Equality or Priority in Enhancement? 133

Part III Health without Borders 137

- 10 Devolution of Health Care Services 139
 - I. The Case for Devolution 141
 - II. How Devolution Upsets Distributive Justice 143
 - III. Ignoring Cultural Preferences in Health Care 144
 - IV. How Devolution Weakens Social Solidarity 148
 - V. Imposing a Uniform Pattern of Consumption 150
- 11 Global Justice and National Responsibility for Health 153
 - I. Justice, Responsibility, and Double Standards 155
 - II. “The Health of Nations” and the Global Economic Order 158
 - III. Holding Nations Responsible for Their Health 160
 - IV. National Responsibility and Future Generations 162
 - V. Equality or Sufficiency in Global Health? 165
 - VI. Intergalactic Egalitarianism 168

Conclusion 171

Notes 175

Bibliography 221

Index 235