

Contents

Preface	vii
Note on Transcription and Toponymies	xi
Abbreviations	2
Introduction: Albania's Legacy	3
PART I • THE GROUNDWORK (1878-1881)
I. The Albanian League and The Congress of Berlin	31
II. Resistance to the Decisions of the Berlin Congress	54
III. The Struggle for Administrative Autonomy	88
PART II • THE STRUGGLE FOR NATIONAL AFFIRMATION (1881-1908)
IV. Cultural Affirmation	111
V. Problems in National Education	129
VI. Role of Societies and Press Abroad	145
VII. Political Thinking	165
VIII. Diffuse Revolutionary Activity	190
IX. Contribution of the Italo-Albanians to the National Movement	215
X. Albania's Importance to Austria-Hungary and Italy	238
XI. Rivalry between Austria-Hungary and Italy and Albanian Reaction	257
XII. The Interest of Balkan Neighbors and the Great Powers	287
XIII. Pretenders to an Imaginary Throne	316
PART III • TOWARD INDEPENDENCE (1908-1912)
XIV. Collaboration between Albanians and Young Turks	335
XV. The Struggle for a National Alphabet and National Schools	366
XVI. The Deepening of the Albanian-Young Turk Conflict	391

XVII.	Revolts, Demands, and Interventions	405
XVIII.	The Attainment of Independence	438
	Conclusion	464
	Bibliography	475
	Index	489