

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
General Introduction: Print Culture Roger Chartier	I

PART I PRINT TO CAPTURE THE IMAGINATION	II
Introduction	13
1 Franciscan Piety and Voracity: Uses and Strategems in the Hagiographic Pamphlet Alain Boureau	15
2 The Hanged Woman Miraculously Saved: An occasionnel Roger Chartier	59
3 Tales as a Mirror: Perrault in the Bibliothèque bleue Catherine Velay-Vallantin	92

PART II RELIGIOUS USES	137
Introduction	139
4 Books of Hours and the Reading Habits of the Later Middle Ages Paul Saenger	141
5 From Ritual to the Hearth: Marriage Charters in Seventeenth-Century Lyons Roger Chartier	174
6 Reading unto Death: Books and Readers in Eighteenth-Century Bohemia Marie-Elisabeth Ducreux	191

PART III	POLITICAL REPRESENTATION AND PERSUASION	231
Introduction		233
7	Readability and Persuasion: Political Handbills Christian Jouhaud	235
8	Books of Emblems on the Public Stage: Côté jardin and côté cour Alain Boureau	261
9	Printing the Event: From La Rochelle to Paris Christian Jouhaud	290
Index		335