

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Preface	vii
Part One. The Communist Party and Its National Front Partners
I. The Communist Party as a Weapon of Revolution	3
II. The Communist Party as an Instrument of Power	22
III. Party Organization	44
IV. The Party's Operational Code in Theory and Practice	68
V. The Ruling Oligarchs	97
VI. Communism's Pernicious Isms	119
VII. The National Front Partners	144
Part Two. The Transmission Belts of Formal Government
VIII. The Constitutional Framework	165
IX. Executive Transmission Belt: I. Theoretical Basis and Organization	185
X. Executive Transmission Belt: II. Operational Pattern	205
XI. The Legislative Rubber Stamp	230
XII. Socialist Legality	268
XIII. Local Levers	304
XIV. Slovakia—An Odd Unit of Provincial Government	330
Part Three. Outproducing Capitalism
XV. The Industrial Challenge	349
XVI. The Agricultural Demise	382
XVII. The Human Cost	424

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Part Four. The Making of the New Communitic Man
xviii. Erecting an Iron Curtain against Western Influences	471
xix. The Educational Weapon	506
xx. The Indoctrination of the Adult Mind	551
xxi. Conclusions and Prospects	595
Bibliography	609
Index	621