

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1
Harold Coward and Kelli I. Stajduhar

PART I

RELIGIOUS UNDERSTANDINGS OF A GOOD DEATH

1 Cicely Saunders and the Development of Hospice
Palliative Care 11
Michael Wright and David Clark

2 “Like a Ripe Fruit Separating Effortlessly from Its Vine”
Religious Understandings of a Good Death: Hinduism 29
Anantanand Rambachan

3 Welcoming an Old Friend: Buddhist Perspectives on
Good Death 51
Anne Bruce

4 Muslim Perspectives on a Good Death in Hospice and
End-of-Life Care 77
Earle Waugh

5 Tradition and Change in Jewish Ideals Regarding a
“Good” Death 99
Norman Ravvin

6	Dying Well in Christianity Janet Soskice	123
7	Chinese Religions and Hospice Care Edwin C. Hui and Danny C. Leung	145
PART II CASE STUDIES
8	Buddhist Hospice Care in Thailand Robert Florida and Pinit Ratanakul	167
9	The Ugandan Way of Living and Dying Michael L. Hadley and Godfrey Agupio	191
10	Punjabi Extended Family Hospice Care Kamala Elizabeth Nayar	211
11	Seeking Physical, Cultural, Ethical, and Spiritual “Safe Space” for a Good Death: The Experience of Indigenous Peoples in Accessing Hospice Care Joseph M. Kaufert, Rhonda Wiebe, Margaret Lavallee, Patricia A. Kaufert	231
12	Caring for Children in Hospice and Palliative Care: The Spiritual/Religious Dimension Betty Davies and Thomas Attig	257
13	Interfaith Chaplaincy in Hospice Palliative Care Kelli I. Stajduhar and Coby Tschanz	277
	Conclusion Harold Coward and Kelli I. Stajduhar	297
	Glossary of Terms and Abbreviations Lee Blanding	317
	Contributors	327
	Index	333