

Contents

List of Illustrations	xi
Introduction	xv
1. Origins of the Genre: In Search of the Radio Sitcom David Marc	1
THE 1950s	13
2. Who Rules the Roost?: Sitcom Family Dynamics from the Cleavers to Modern Family Judy Kutulas	17
3. I Love Lucy : Television and Gender in Postwar Domestic Ideology Lori Landay	31
4. To the Moon! Working-Class Masculinity in The Honeymooners Steven T. Sheehan	43
THE 1960s	55
5. The Rural Sitcom from The Real McCoys to Relevance Rick Worland and John O'Leary	59
6. The 1960s Magicom: Safety in Numb-ers Gary Kenton	75

7.	Negotiated Boundaries: Production Practices and the Making of Representation in Julia Demetria Rougeaux Shabazz	91
	THE 1970s	105
8.	The Norman Lear Sitcoms and the 1970s Gerard Jones	107
9.	Liberated Women and New Sensitive Men: Reconstructing Gender in 1970s Workplace Comedies Judy Kutulas	121
10.	“Who’s in Charge Here?” Views of Media Ownership in Situation Comedies Paul R. Kohl	133
	THE 1980s	145
11.	The Cosby Show : Recoding Ethnicity and Masculinity within the Television Text Michael Real and Lauren Bratslavsky	149
12.	Roseanne, Roseanne , Reality, and Domestic Comedy Susan McLeland	165
13.	Cheers : Searching for the Ideal Public Sphere in the Ideal Public House Robert S. Brown	177
	THE 1990s	185
14.	Seinfeld : The Transcendence of the Quotidian Albert Auster	189
15.	Cybill : Privileging Liberal Feminism in Daily Sitcom Life Laura R. Linder and Mary M. Dalton	199

16. Talking Sex: Comparison Shopping through Female
Conversation in HBO's Sex and the City 217
Sharon Marie Ross

THE 2000s 231

17. "It's Just a Bunch of Stuff that Happened": The Simpsons
and the Possibility of Postmodern Comedy 235
H. Peter Steeves
18. Breaking and Entering: Transgressive Comedy on Television 247
Michael V. Tueth
19. Sealed with a Kiss: Heteronormative Narrative Strategies in
NBC's Will & Grace 259
Denis M. Provencher

THE 2010s 273

20. The Hidden Truths in Contemporary Black Sitcoms 279
Robin R. Means Coleman, Charlton D. McIlwain, and Jessica Moore Matthews
21. Disability and Sitcoms: A Legit Analysis 295
James Schultz
22. Transparent Family Values: Unmasking Sitcom Myths of Gender, Sex(uality), and Money 305
Maria San Filippo

Conclusion: The Evolving, Resilient Sitcom: Sitcoms are Not Dead! 319

Bibliography 323

List of Contributors 345

Index 349