

Contents

List of Illustrations	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: Latin American Cinema Beyond the Human Carolyn Fornoff and Gisela Heffes	1

GENRE BEYOND THE HUMAN

1. Movies on the Move: Filming the Amazon Rainforest Patrícia Vieira	25
2. Visualizing the Geosphere: The 1985 Earthquake in Mexican Cinema Carolyn Fornoff	47
3. Revisiting Nature and Documenting the Americas: From Alexander von Humboldt to the Contemporary Latin American Documentary Juana New	69
4. Slow Violence in the Slow Cinema of Lisandro Alonso Amanda Eaton McMenamin	89

ENCOUNTERING DIFFERENCE

5. Humanimal Assemblages: Slaughters in Latin American Left-Wing Cinema 111
Maira Fradinger
6. Reordering Material Hierarchies in Jossie Malis Álvarez's Animated Series, Bendito Machine 139
Katherine Bundy
7. Mapping Queer Natures in Papu Curotto's Esteros 161
Vinodh Venkatesh
8. Counterflows: Hydraulic Order and Residual Ecologies in Caribbean Fantasy Landscapes 181
Lisa Blackmore
9. Differential Viscosities: The Material Hermeneutics of Blood, Oil, and Water in Crude and The Blood of Kouan Kouan 205
Mark Anderson

SCREENING THE PLURIVERSE

10. Human Rights at the End of the World: Patricio Guzmán and the "Imperative to Reimagine the Planet" 231
Fernando J. Rosenberg
11. Sea Turtles and Seascapes: Representing Human-Nature Relations in the Central American Caribbean 255
Mauricio Espinoza and Tomás Emilio Arce
12. Refracting Lenses on the Atlantic Coast of Nicaragua: Documenting Social Ecologies and Biospheres in El ojo del tiburón and El canto de Bosawas 281
Julia M. Medina

13. The Sacred Space of Motoapohua: Intercorporeal Animality and National Subjectivities in Nicolás Echevarría's Eco de la montaña Iván Eusebio Aguirre Darancou	305
14. Undisciplined Knowledge: Indigenous Activism and Decapitation Resistance Gisela Heffes	327
Contributors	345
Index	349