

Asia after Versailles

Edinburgh East Asian Studies Series

Series Editors: Natascha Gentz, Urs Matthias Zachmann and David Der-Wei Wang

Covering language, literature, history and society, this series of academic monographs and reference volumes brings together scholars of East Asia to address crucial topics in East Asian Studies. The series embraces a broad scope of approaches and welcomes volumes that address topics such as regional patterns of cooperation and social, political and cultural implications of inter-regional collaborations, as well as volumes on individual regional themes across the spectrum of East Asian Studies. With its critical analysis of central issues in East Asia, and its remit of contributing to a wider understanding of East Asian countries' international impact, the series will be crucial to understand the shifting patterns in this region within an increasingly globalised world.
