

CONTENTS

List of Figures and Plates	viii
Introduction: Women and the Birth of Periodical Culture	1
Jennie Batchelor and Manushag N. Powell
Part I: Learning for the Ladies
Introduction	23
1. Periodicals and the Problem of Women's Learning	25
James Robert Wood
2. Discontinuous Reading and Miscellaneous Instruction for British Ladies	40
Eve Tavor Bannet
3. Constructing Women's History in the Lady's Museum	53
Anna K. Sagal
4. Vindications and Reflections: The Lady's Magazine during the Revolution Controversy (1789–1795)	67
Koenraad Claes
Part II: The Poetics of Periodicals
Introduction	85
5. Dunton and Singer after the Athenian Mercury : Two Plots of Platonic Love	87
Dustin D. Stewart
6. Women's Poetry in the Magazines	101
Jennifer Batt
7. 'A lasting wreath of various hue': Hannah Cowley, the Della Cruscan Affair, and the Medium of the Periodical Poem	113
Tanya M. Caldwell
8. The Lady's Poetical Magazine and the Fashioning of Women's Literary Space	129
Octavia Cox

Part III: Periodicals Nationally and Internationally
Introduction	151
9. Protesting the Exclusivity of the Public Sphere: Delarivier Manley's Examiner Rachel Carnell	153
10. 'A moral paper! And how do you expect to get money by it?': Lady Mary Wortley Montagu and Journalism Isobel Grundy	165
11. Eliza Haywood's Periodicals in Wartime Catherine Ingrassia	178
12. German Women's Writing in British Magazines, 1760–1820 Alessa Johns	190
13. Travel Writing and Mediation in the Lady's Magazine : Charting 'the meridian of female reading' JoEllen DeLucia	205
Part IV: Print Media and Print Culture
Introduction	219
14. '[L]et a girl read': Periodicals and Women's Literary Canon Formation Rachael Scarborough King	221
15. Reviewing Women: Women Reviewers on Women Novelists Megan Peiser	236
16. Reviewing Femininity: Gender and Genre in the Late Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century Periodical Press Pam Perkins	250
17. 'Full of pretty stories': Fiction in the Lady's Magazine (1770–1832) Jenny DiPlacidi	263
18. 'This Lady is Descended from a Good Family': Women and Biography in British Magazines, 1770–1798 Hannah Doherty Hudson	278
19. Suitable Reading Material: Fandom and Female Pleasure in Women's Engagement with Romantic Periodicals Evan Hayles Gledhill	294
Part V: Theorising the Periodical in Text and Practice
Introduction	313
20. The Ladies Mercury Nicola Parsons	315
21. John Dunton's Ladies Mercury and the Eighteenth-Century Female Subject Slaney Chadwick Ross	327

22. Frances Brooke, Editor, and the Making of the Old Maid (1755–1756) Kathryn R. King	342
23. Eyes that Eagerly ‘Bear the Steady Ray of Reason’: Eidolon as Activist in Charlotte Lennox’s Lady’s Museum Susan Carlile	357
24. ‘[T]o cherish Female ingenuity and to conduce to Female improvement’: The Birth of the Woman’s Magazine Jennie Batchelor	377
25. The Woman behind the Man behind the World : Mary Wells and the Feminisation of the Late Eighteenth-Century Newspaper Claire Knowles	393
Part VI: Fashion, Theatre, and Celebrity
Introduction	409
26. Advertising Women: Gender and the Vendor in the Print Culture of the Medical Marketplace, 1660–1830 Barbara M. Benedict	411
27. Theatrical, Periodical, Authorial: Frances Brooke’s Old Maid (1755–1756) Manushag N. Powell	426
28. Fast Fashion: Style, Text, and Image in Late Eighteenth-Century Women’s Periodicals Chloe Wigston Smith	440
29. Magazine Miniatures: Portraits of Actresses, Princesses, and Queens in Late Eighteenth-Century Periodicals Laura Engel	458
30. Fashioning Consumers: Ackermann’s Repository of Arts and the Cultivation of the Female Consumer Serena Dyer	474
Appendix	488
Notes on Contributors	495
Index	501