

FIGURES AND TABLES

Figures

3.1	Implementation of IFSB standards by regulatory and supervisory authorities for 2016 with a comparison with 2015	68
5.1	Key points relating to shari'ah governance timeline in the Kingdom of Bahrain (1979–2002)	93
5.2	Key points relating to shari'ah governance timeline in the Kingdom of Bahrain (2008–18)	93
8.1	Shari'ah -compliant stocks in India	143
8.2	Assets under management (INR million) as on 31 December 2018	145
8.3	Classification of micro-finance in India	148
8.4	GIC Re-Takaful (Wakala-Mudaraba)	151
9.1	The infrastructure of Islamic finance in Indonesia	155
12.1	Assets of the Kuwaiti banking system	188
12.2	The CBK's approach to regulation and the supervisory review process	190
12.3	Shari'ah governance framework in Islamic bank: the organisation structure	194
13.1	Malaysian model for shari'ah governance framework for Islamic financial institutions	216
13.2	In BIMB, the shari'ah governance framework is represented in the following diagram	230
13.3	BIMB internal shari'ah compliance function	231
14.1	Shari'ah governance process for institutions offering participatory finance products in Morocco	239
17.1	Islamic banking assets in Qatar for the period 1990–2008	287
17.2	Islamic banking assets in Qatar for the period 2009–16 (US$ millions)	287
17.3	Total banking assets in Qatar 2010–15 (US$ billions)	288
19.1	Shari'ah governance structure in Sudan	322
20.1	Authorisation certificate for participation banking operations of Ziraat Participation Bank	342
20.2	Authorisation certificate for participation banking operations of Ziraat Participation Bank	343
23.1	The three lines of defence model	387

25.1	Islamic economy paradigm choices	417
25.2	Transformation of global economic paradigm and the new financial architecture	418
25.3	Islamic financial architecture in the global context	419
25.4	The three layers of effective policy implementation	420
25.5	MDGs regime – conflict a cause of ineffectiveness	421
25.6	An example of the synchronisation of local aspirations and global targets and goals	421
25.7(a)	Shari'ah governance layers.	423
25.7(b)	Reforming shari'ah governance to achieve SDGs using Islamic finance	423
25.8	Structural risk in the design of sukuk	425

Tables

2.1	Main differences between corporate governance and shari'ah governance	45
2.2	Main differences between Shari'ah Council and Shari'ah Internal Auditor	51
3.1	The major IFSB standards	62
3.2	IIFM published standards and standards under development	63
3.3	Broad categorisation of AAOIFI's objectives	65
3.4	Adoption of AAOIFI standards	66
6.1	Islamic banking industry in Bangladesh	105
6.2	Islamic finance industry in Bangladesh	106
6.3	Details of the interviews for data collection	107
6.4	Current shari'ah governance regulatory landscape in Bangladesh	111
6.5	Shari'ah Board of Islami Bank Bangladesh Limited	115
6.6	Shari'ah boards of Islamic banks in Bangladesh as of 2015	117
6.7	Shari'ah Board of Fareast Islami Life Insurance Limited	118
6.8	Shari'ah boards of Islamic insurance companies in Bangladesh	119
8.1	Financial regulatory architecture in India	141
10.1	An overview of Resaalat Qard Hassan bank (2012–16)	174
12.1	The CBK's instructions on shari'ah governance for Islamic banks	193
12.2	Names of members of the FSSB in Islamic banks	197
12.3	Twelve key elements of shari'ah governance practices at Kuwaiti Islamic banks	199
13.1	Differences between shari'ah review and shari'ah audit	221
13.2	The fourteen shari'ah standards	225
13.3	The legal provisions on shari'ah governance in IFSA 2013	227
14.1	List of licensed participatory banks in Morocco	235
14.2	Key features of the Moroccan Shari'ah Committee for Participatory Finance	237
14.3	Assessing the shari'ah governance regime in Morocco	240
14.4	Key features of the SSC at institutional level in Tunisia	241
Appendix 14.1	Laws and decrees related to shari'ah governance in Morocco	243
Appendix 14.2	Chronology of participatory finance millstones in Morocco	244
Appendix 14.3	Comparison between Bank Al-Maghrib, AAOIFI and IFSB shari'ah governance guidelines	245

15.1	Guidelines on non-interest financial institutions in Nigeria	253
15.2	Members of the Financial Regulation Advisory Committees of Experts	256
15.3	Members of Advisory Committee of Experts of three banks in Nigeria	259
Appendix 17.2	Shari'ah in Islamic finance institutions in Qatar	299
18.1	Members of IFSB from Saudi Arabia	310
18.2	Overview of the SSB members in twelve Islamic banks in Saudi Arabia	312
19.1	Role of key Sudanese institutions in shari'ah governance	325
20.1	Participation banks in Turkey	336
20.2	Shari'ah board structure of participation banks	339
20.3	Interest-free finance advisory working committee of TKBB	340
21.1	IFIs in Europe and their SSCs as of 2017	359
25.1	Sustainable development goals, global compact principles and principles of responsible investment	414
26.1	Shari'ah Governance Framework in the GCC countries	433
26.2	Shari'ah non-compliance income of Islamic banks in Malaysia in 2015	440
26.3	Number of shari'ah scholars worldwide	441
26.4	Value-based intermediation framework for Islamic finance	443
26.5	Proposed enhancement of and transformation of shari'ah governance	444