

CONTENTS

List of Figures	viii
List of Acronyms and Abbreviations	xii
Acknowledgements	xiv
Note on Transliteration	xv
Notes on Contributors	xvi

- 1 Introduction – Engaging with ‘Minority’ Voices: Cultural Representation in Museums of the Middle East and North Africa 1
Virginie Rey

Exhibiting Minorities

- 2 The Ethnographisation of Syrian Society at the Azem Palace of Damascus: From Compact Minorities to Toponymical Identity 33
Virginie Rey and Stephen Pascoe
- 3 ‘The Performance of Servitude’: Gendered and Racialised Representations of Citizenship at the Bahrain National Museum 56
John Thabiti Willis

- 4 Minority Audience: The Oudayas Museum and the Manufacturing of Elitism in Moroccan Museums 72
Francesca De Micheli
- 5 Lodges of Debate: Two Museumised Sufi Tekkes in Anatolia 87
Lucía Cirianni Salazar

Minorities Exhibiting

- 6 Museums, Migrant Labourers and Ethnic Spatiality in the United Arab Emirates 111
Sarina Wakefield
- 7 Paving the Way for a Lebanese National Narrative: Empathy at the Armenian Genocide Orphans' Aram Bezikian Museum in Lebanon 130
Rh  a Dagher and Rita Kalindjian
- 8 A National Museum for a People Without a Land: The Palestinian
Museum, Birzeit 151
Zoe Holman
- 9 Egypt's Coptic Museum: From Patriarchal to National 181
Dina Ishak Bakhoun
- 10 Branding Convivencia: Jewish Museums and the Reinvention of a
Moroccan Andalus in Essaouira 205
Aomar Boum

Imagined Museums

- 11 Is Tunisia Ready for a Jewish Museum? Perspectives on the Current Debates Surrounding the Status of Jewish Heritage in my Country 227
Habib Kazdaghli
- 12 'Do I Even Exist?' Kurdish Diaspora Artists Reflect on Imaginary
Exhibits in a Kurdistan Museum 241
Vera Eccarius-Kelly

13	Islamic State's Archive of the Digital Infinite: Imagined Museums, New Media and Conflict Capitalism	268
	Amanda Rogers
14	Afterword – Minoritised Memory and Affect in a Museology of Disaster	299
	Katarzyna Pieprzak
	Index	308