

Contents

Acknowledgements	vi
Preface: The Unbearable Lightness of Ethics	viii
Introduction: Contemporary Hermeneutics and the Question of Responsibility	1
Part I: The Responsibility to Understand
1. The Responsibility to Understand	29
2. The Capacity for Displacement	47
Part II: I and Thou
3. Things	71
4. Animals	88
5. Others	106
Part III: I and We
6. Solidarity	127
7. Arts and Literature	143
8. Translation	163
Notes	183
Bibliography	206
Index	218