

Ikhinmwini tree, the first tree to come into the world, which is planted whenever a new community or compound is established. In this process it becomes a shrine and has chalk designs as an offering to the deity (12/12/1991)