

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Points of methodology	viii
Introduction	x

PART ONE

Historical background

1 The law of the Prophet and his companions	3
2 After the orthodox caliphs	10
The organisation of legal subject matter	25
Theology and law	27

PART TWO

The law and its sources

3 The divine sources	35
The primary sources (the Qur'an and Sunna)	36
The Sunna of the Prophet	38
Categories of Sunna as legal interpretations for the meanings of the Qur'an	39
Ijmā' and obtaining the view of umma	46
Ijmā' today	47
4 The human sources	51
Qiyās and ijtihād	51
Requirements for qiyās	53
Istiḥsān, juristic preference	57
Sadd al-dharā'i'	62

PART THREE
The source-tuners

- | | | |
|---|---|----|
| 5 | Public interest and the source of law | 69 |
| 6 | Ḍarūra , necessity | 82 |
| | The interplay between Ḍarūra and maṣlaḥa | 86 |

PART FOUR
The legal mechanisms for understanding the law

- | | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 7 | Islamic jurisprudence, uṣūl al-fiqh | 95 |
| | The subjects of law | 102 |
| 8 | Understanding the textual expressions | 111 |
| | The legal maxims | 113 |

PART FIVE
Legal authority and the future of Islamic law

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 9 | Legal authority and the diverse faces of Islamic law | 125 |
| | The 'establishment' face of Islamic law | 125 |
| | Authority and the law of resurgence | 129 |
| | Authority and the liberal face of Islamic law | 130 |
| | The 'middle way' face of Islamic law | 133 |
| | Islamic legal authority and Western methodology | 135 |
| | Authority and the pious face of Islam: Singapore, Brunei and
Malaysia | 137 |
| | Conclusion | 138 |
| 10 | The fatāwa and legal authority | 144 |
| 11 | The future of Islamic law | 154 |
| | Glossary | 159 |
| | Bibliography | 168 |
| | Index | 173 |