

Contents

List of Tables	6
Abbreviations	6
Introduction	7
1. The 'Cotton Districts' and the Origins of the Mid-Victorian 'Consensus': Issues and Debates	11
2. Local Politics 1827–1836: Petit-Bourgeois Radicals and Local Government	25
Local government and politics before municipal incorporation	29
The political outlook of the petite bourgeoisie in perspective: local campaigns and national politics	41
3. Local Politics 1837–1850: Middle-Class Social Formation and Municipal Reform	57
The divided middle class: Bolton Liberals	60
The divided middle class: Bolton Tories	65
Municipal incorporation and the emergence of a middle-class consensus	73
4. Popular Politics 1837–1850: The Ideological Origins of the Mid-Victorian Consensus	105
Middle-class Liberals and popular reform movements	107
Toryism and the working class	120
The ideological content of political protest movements	126
5. The Limits to Middle-Class Hegemony: Technological Change and Industrial Relations	151
Workers and labour processes	154
Economic conflict in perspective	170

Contents

6.	Paternalism and Class Reconciliation	181
	Paternalism and authority	185
	Adult education	193
	Charity and philanthropy	197
	Temperance	200
	Factory reform	203
	Conclusion	217
	Bibliography	227
	Index	245

List of Tables

3.1	Population Levels in the Townships Comprising the Bolton Poor Law Union, 1841	80
3.2	Population Levels in the Townships Comprising the Bolton Poor Law Union, 1851	81
5.1	Occupational Analysis of Selected South-East Lancashire Towns, 1841	154
5.2	Principal Occupations, Bolton Borough, 1851	155

Abbreviations

B.C.	Bolton Chronicle
B.F.P.	Bolton Free Press
B.A.	Bolton Archives section of the Bolton Reference Library
B.R.L.	Material located in the Local History section of the Bolton Reference Library
B.P.P.	British Parliamentary Papers
H.O.	Material from the Home Office files, located in the Public Record Office at Kew, London

Other references are given in full.