

Abbreviations

Unless otherwise indicated, all references are to works by De Quincey, more specifically the most recent critical edition of his Collected Works (Pickering & Chatto, 2000–3). Notes indicate volumes and page numbers in this edition. Particularly frequent references are abbreviated as follows.

AB	‘Autobiography of an English Opium-Eater’
BL	Coleridge, Biographia Literaria
C 1821	‘Confessions of an English Opium-Eater’, 1821 version
C 1822	Appendix to ‘Confessions’
C 1856	‘Confessions of an English Opium-Eater’, 1856 version
D	Diary
EMC	‘The English Mail-Coach, or the Glory of Motion’
ER	‘Elements of Rhetoric’
HWE	‘How to Write English’
KME	‘Kant in his Miscellaneous Essays’
LD	‘The Last Days of Immanuel Kant’
LJ	Wasianski, Die letzte Jahre Immanuel Kants
LYM	‘Letters to a Young Man Whose Education has been Neglected’
M	‘Wilhelm Meister’
R	‘Jean Paul Frederick Richter’
S	‘Style’ Nos. I through IV
SdP	‘Suspiria de Profundis’
SGG	Selections Grave and Gay
SEL	‘On the Present Stage of the English Language’
TEL	‘The English Language’
W	Walladmor
WA	Alexis, Walladmor
WH	‘Sir William Hamilton, with a Glance at His Logical Reforms’
WL	‘Walladmor: Sir Walter Scott’s German Novel’