

Contents

Table of Statutes	xi
Table of Orders, Rules and Regulations	xxviii
Table of International Materials	xxxix
Table of Cases	xxx
Preface	xli
1. Absolute Basics	1
Types of procedure	1
The courts	1
The parties	2
Finding the law	2
The Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995	2
Act of Adjournal (Criminal Procedure Rules) 1996	3
Practice notes	3
Case law	3
Proof	4
Burden of proof	5
Admissibility of evidence	7
Sufficiency of evidence	7
Credibility and reliability	9
Standard of proof	10
Excusal of procedural irregularities	11
Chapter overview	12
2. Jurisdiction	13
Jurisdiction based on territory	13
General	13
Fraud and cross-border crimes	14
Crimes in more than one sheriff court district	16
Jurisdiction based on nationality or residence	17
Jurisdiction over particular crimes	18
The High Court of Justiciary	18

Sheriff court	18
JP court	19
Chapter overview	20
3. The Prosecution of Crime	21
The Lord Advocate	21
Advocate deputes	22
Procurators fiscal	22
Brief history and functions	22
Relationship with police and other investigators	23
The decision to prosecute	24
Alternatives to prosecution	25
No proceedings, warning letters and diversion	25
Fixed penalties, compensation offers and work orders	25
Choice of procedure	26
The prosecutor as ‘master of the instance’	26
Chapter overview	28
4. Investigation of Crime	29
Introduction	29
Arrest	30
When can the police make an arrest?	30
Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2016	31
Procedure after arrest	35
Investigative liberation	37
Questioning suspects	38
Initial enquiries	38
Particular suspicion	39
Questioning at a police station	43
The right to legal advice	43
Questioning a person who has been officially accused	48
Search	49
Search of the person	49
Invasive search	52
Search of property	54
Was the search within the scope of the warrant?	58
Cases of urgency	59
Regulation of investigatory powers	60
Identification procedure	62
Chapter overview	63
5. Petition Procedure	65
Committal for further examination	67
Chapter overview	68

6. Bail	69
Bail applications	69
Relevant considerations	70
Conditions	72
Domicile of citation	74
Bail appeals	75
Marking and intimation	75
Bail reviews	75
Bail appeal after conviction	76
Chapter overview	77
7. Solemn Proceedings from Petition to Preliminary Hearing or First Diet	79
Introduction	79
Crown preparation	80
Time limits	80
Extensions	83
Precognition on authority of petition warrant	84
Precognition on oath	85
Disclosure	86
Prosecutor's duty	86
Defence statement	88
Duty of investigating agency	88
Rulings about disclosure	88
Defence precognition and identification parade	89
Plea of guilty before service of indictment	90
The indictment	91
Service	91
Charges	92
Relevancy	93
Specification	94
Aggravations and dockets	98
Aggravations	98
Dockets	101
Amendment of charges	102
List of witnesses	105
Productions	105
Labelled productions	106
Documentary productions	109
Notice of previous convictions	112
Action by the defence between service of indictment and first diet/preliminary hearing	113
Defence statement	113

Compatibility issues	113
Notice of special defences, defence witnesses and defence productions	115
Preliminary pleas and preliminary issues	116
Preliminary pleas	117
Challenges to competency or relevancy	117
Preliminary issues	124
Written record	129
Chapter overview	130
8. Preliminary Hearings and First Diets	133
Is the accused allowed to conduct their defence personally	133
Preliminary pleas	134
Recording the plea	134
Preliminary issues	133
Other objections to the admissibility of evidence	135
Which witnesses are required	136
State of preparation	136
Agreement of facts by joint minute	136
Statements of uncontroversial evidence	137
Other matters	138
Appeals	138
Fixing the trial	139
Chapter overview	139
9. Summary Proceedings from First Appearance to Trial	141
The complaint	141
First appearance	143
The first calling in summary procedure	145
Procedure on guilty plea	148
Withdrawal of guilty plea	148
Procedure on not guilty plea	148
Adjournment for trial	148
Intermediate diet	149
Bail	150
Prevention of delay in trials	150
Disclosure	151
Intermediate diet	151
Chapter overview	154
10. Vulnerable Witnesses	156
The problem	156
Closing the court	158

Child witnesses: Discretionary powers	158
Special measures for vulnerable witnesses	159
Which witnesses are ‘vulnerable’	159
The special measures	163
Prior sexual conduct of the complainer	168
Chapter overview	171
11. The Trial: Evidence	173
What things constitute evidence	173
Admissibility of evidence	174
Objections	174
Particular rules	179
Sufficiency of evidence	207
General	207
Course of criminal conduct – The Moorov doctrine	210
Corroboration of confessions	213
Fingerprints, DNA, CCTV, etc.	215
Chapter overview	216
12. The Trial: Procedure	219
Failure of the accused to appear	219
Back-up trials and call over	220
Commencement of the trial	220
Summary trials	220
Indictment	220
All cases	223
No case to answer submissions	226
Defence case	228
Recalling witnesses	228
Additional evidence	229
Evidence in replication	229
Submission as to sufficiency of evidence	230
Speeches	231
Jury directions	231
Verdict	232
Chapter overview	233
13. Sentencing	235
Procedure	235
Motion for sentence	236
Previous convictions	236
Unexpired portion of a sentence	237
Crown narrative	238

Forfeiture	238
Notification requirements	239
Adjournment for inquiry	240
Mitigation and proof of mitigation	241
‘Discount’ for guilty plea	241
Particular sentences	244
General matters	244
Custodial sentences	248
Community disposals	252
Financial penalties	258
Chapter overview	263
14. Appeals	266
Defence appeals	266
Solemn procedure	266
Summary procedure	277
Crown appeals	283
Solemn procedure	283
Summary procedure	284
Bills of advocation and bills of suspension	285
Advocation	285
Suspension	286
Procedure	287
The nobile officium	287
Chapter overview	288
 Index	 291