My thanks go to everyone at Edinburgh University Press for helping to get this project off the ground, particularly Jen Daly, Gillian Leslie, Ersev Ersoy and the rest of the Politics team. Also to the readers of the proposal and then the manuscript for their astute suggestions for amendments and additions to the book's themes, and to Prof. W. R. Owens for passing on some useful references. The support and encouragement of my wife, Dr Helene Brandon, has, as ever, proved to be a vital element in seeing this through to conclusion.
