

CONTENTS

ix	List of Abbreviations
xiii	Preface From Diasporic to Transcontinental Entanglement
PART I. IMPERIAL ENTANGLEMENTS
3	Introduction Expulsion as Closure, Expulsion as Opening
41	1. Becoming a Racial Exile, Becoming a Black Nation Colonial and Postcolonial Orientations
PART II. ENTANGLEMENTS OF EXPULSION
91	2. Exceptions to the Expulsion Racial Denizenship in Amin's Uganda
128	3. Insecurities of Repatriation From Refugee to Returnee

PART III. SOUTH-SOUTH ENTANGLEMENTS

173	4. Insecurities of Foreign Direct Investment From Returnee to Investor-Citizen
207	5. Indian Ugandan, African Asian, or Both? Community-Building, Community Citizenship, and Culture and Indigeneity
242	6. Of Gendered Insecurities Contingent and Ambivalent Feminist Afro-South Asian Intimacies and Solidarities
279	Conclusion Toward a Transcontinental Anthropology of Afro-South Asian Entanglement
301	Postscript Fifty Years On
307	Appendix Active South Asian Community Associations and Institutions in Uganda since the Early 1990s
311	Notes
345	Bibliography
365	Index