Acknowledgments

The completion of this book would have been impossible without the tireless labors of Andrew Schmitz and Benjamin Friedlander. They generously gave their time and expertise, reviewed with me the entire manuscript for consistency and readability, and helped with the scholarly apparatus. I am enormously grateful to them. In addition to the translators—Andrew Schmitz, Marcus Coelen, Thomas Loebel, Bettina Bergo, Alin Cristian, Michael Smith and Maureen Gedney—I would like to thank John Llewelyn, Kenneth Dauber, and Bronia Karst, who read portions of the manuscript and offered invaluable suggestions. Thanks to Nicole Martello for editorial assistance and to Aaron Alter for technical support.

IS IT RIGHTEOUS TO BE?
