

Contents

Preface ix

1. Norfolk Beginnings, 1552–1570 1
 2. Roads South: Norwich, Cambridge, Holborn 12
 3. Learning the Law 27
 4. Practicing the Law 40
 5. Magistrates and Ministers: County Politics, 1572–1583 54
 6. Challenges to Authority: County Politics, 1583–1592 67
 7. Understanding, Authority, and Will: Coke’s
“Artificial Reason” 83
 8. The Great Cases: Shelley, Chudleigh, and Slade 108
 9. Coke’s Historical Learning 135
 10. Anne Coke Stubbes and the Puritan Movement 156
 11. Sir Edward and Mistress Anne 176
 12. Character 189
 13. The Parliament of 1593 215
 14. The Queen’s Attorney and Cecil’s Man 242
 15. The End of the Reign 272
- Afterword 297

Bibliography 303 Index 317

